Each double page invites young children to discover many different types of towns, from sleepy fishing ports to bustling market towns. Simple text and colourful scenes bursting with things to spot combine to help children develop skills in reading, counting, matching and identification. Whether spotting cinemas or counting buses, the puzzle element will further aid children's understanding of the relationship between pictures and text. Great fun is to be had spotting the rich aspects of town life, from waiters in street cafes to cars in traffic jams.
